

MEDIA RELEASE

Finding the meaning of Harvest

Calling all painters, chisellers, scrapers or daubers, we invite you to showcase your creative talents at the Harvest Festival Art Exhibition.

Art Exhibition coordinator Ute Annells says, "Let your mind explore the theme 'Everything Harvest' and get creative". This exhibition is a celebration of the harvest in our region.

The competition has 3 levels; you can enter as an established artist, an emerging artist or a young artist.

"With a first prize of $1500 we hope to attract some truly inspiring pieces of art" says Ute.

This is an acquisition prize with the winning piece being auctioned at 'Feast McLaren Vale', the Harvest Festival dinner, funds raised will be donated to the McLaren Vale and District War Memorial Hospital.

Entry forms and information can be downloaded from www.harvestfestivalmclarenvale.com.au or if you want some further information about the competition or the exhibition, please contact Ute on Mob. 0407 974 062 or via email on harvestfestivalmc@hotmail.com

Entries for the Exhibition will close on 30 November 2011 and the Exhibition will run from 5 January 2012 until 5 February 2012 in the Barrel Hall Gallery at Rosemount Estate.

The art competition is yet another exciting part of the Harvest Festival McLaren Vale, a festival for the whole family. A fun filled day with music, performances, entertainment, food and wine. There will be plenty of children's entertainment, a battle of the celebrities, master classes in wine, cheese, beer, chocolate and many more, a "my dog's better than your dog" winemaker's dog competition and a lot more.

Book out your diary for the Harvest Festival McLaren Vale oval on January 14th and entry is free.